REKERT HOME SCENE

OF HOLIDAY FESTIVITIES
The home of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Renkert, on Belvedere boulevard, was the scene of one of the most delightful affairs of the season on Christmas day, when they entertained with a tea and dance in special compliment to their attractive young daughter, Miss Ruth Renkert, their nephew, Mr. George Hunt Spicer, of Denver, Col., and Miss Lucile Warwick.

The spacious rooms thrown open for dancing had been elaborately decorated with holly, mistletoe and other evergreens, caught with bows of scarlet tulle and red Christmas bells.

A cordial greeting was extended to the guests by Mr. and Mrs. Renkert, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Warwick, both Mr. Renkert and Mrs. Warwick being handsomely gowned. Mr. Ceylon Blackwell received with Miss Renkert, who wore a charming frock of flame-colored georgette crepe in a draped model with self-trimmings of tiny ruffles, with which she wore a corsage bouquet of roses and valley lilies.

Mr. Addison Johnston, of Jackson, Tenn., formerly of Memphis, received with Miss Warwick, who was gowned in black velvet embroidered in gold thread, having a bodice of gold-brocaded chiffon, with which she wore a corsage bouquet of roses and valley lilies. Mr. Spicer received with Miss Ruth Edwards, who was gowned in grape crepe de chine with a flame-colored sash, with which she wore a corsage bouquet of roses and valley lilies.

The tea table was beautifully decorated with scarlet blossoms as a centerpiece, while red candles burned in silver candlesticks. A delicious menu was served throughout the afternoon to the guests, about 200 of whom had the pleasure of being present.

BANK CASHIER LOCKED IN VAULT BY BANDIT

Lone Robber Secures $10,000 With Little Difficulty.
STRONG, Ark., Dec. 25.—The Victoria bank of Strong, was robbed by a lone bandit who locked the assistant cashier in the safety deposit vault and escaped with $10,000. After covering the assistant cashier, A. L. Chambers, with his gun, the bandit gagged him with a piece of rag and then locked the bank official in the vault. He gathered up the money, which comprised the day's deposits, walked out of the bank without being seen. Two hours later the imprisoned banker unlocked the vault from the inside and gave the alarm. In the meantime the robbery had not been discovered.
